I'd recommend downloading the offline verion of the app, so that you have it on your computer, but if you still have your Microsoft account linked to Office 365 then you can just use the online version of the product key generator. The steps involved in this guide are as follows: The original method used a Universal Serial Bus (USB) to a local wireless network, a feature added in October 2017 with an improved security model. The latest version allows for bypassing activation using a software-based token provisioning system. The latest version of Microsoft Office 2019 (Office 2019) requires the account used to install and activate the product to be licensed in order to use it. This is in contrast to previous editions, in which a license wasn't required. As such, Office 2019 can't be installed by using an unlicensed account. For example, if your version of Windows isn't activated, you'll receive an error when you try to install Office 2019. If you're trying to activate a volume-licensed version of Office 2019 or later, use the activation troubleshooter for assistance or contact your organization's support personnel.
